Salt hill Pub on Main Street, Newport – Est. 2007

"Guess who's back?"

For nearly a quarter century, the Tuohy family operated the popular Shanty Chalet restaurant at the Mt. Sunapee circle. It was a second home to many who were guaranteed a warm welcome and an open ear, as well as terrific food and strong brew. Tom and Judy Tuohy's six kids grew up in the Shanty, schooled by example in work ethic and service with a smile.

It seems everyone, especially his kids, couldn't escape Tom Tuohy's classic greeting of "Guess who's back?" as he gave you a stinging slap on the back. The answer to that question today is, "We are".

A little more than a decade after the demise of the Shanty, brothers Joe and Josh Tuohy have opened their second Salt hill Pub in Newport's historic Eagle Block. It's a little west and north of the circle, but close enough to call home. While patterned after its popular big brother on the Mall in Lebanon, NH, Salt hill Pub on Main Street in Newport offers an atmosphere all its own featuring fine spirits and our unique blend of honest food, perfect pints and good humor.

Salt hill is a neighborhood in Galway, home to our grandparents. Today, much of what we know about good food and good people comes from "Ma Tuohy". Stop by the pub anytime for a beer, a bite and some conversation and you'll know what we mean when we say "Welcome to Salt hill".
